Thames Reach helps homeless and vulnerable people to live in decent homes, build supportive relationships and lead fulfilling lives. In this way, we hope to achieve our vision of ending street homelessness. We support people with experience of homelessness as well as vulnerable or isolated men and women who may be in danger of becoming homeless. We specialise in helping people with complex and multiple needs, including mental health issues and drug and alcohol problems. Our London Street Rescue teams are out across the capital every day of the year, providing help to homeless men and women sleeping rough. Outreach workers and volunteers contact rough sleepers in a bid to help them away from the streets. Our teams are the ultimate safety net helping the capital's most vulnerable men and women. We provide practical assistance, including: Help into emergency accommodation, Help into hostel accommodation/private/rented/The Clearing house/Supported housing, Help with ID and benefits and information, Advice about support services and Assistance with linking in with health services.

To make a referral complete the online form to tell London Street Rescue about someone sleeping rough. They will either act on the information provided themselves, or pass it to the appropriate outreach team. Alternatively, you can call 0870 383 3333, email streetrescue@thamesreach.org.uk, or send a fax on 020 7702 5674. Calls are confidential. London Street Rescue aims to visit people referred to the service within 4-5 days. Please provide as much detail as possible about the individual to help them make contact with the individual. THE PASSAGE

St. Vincents Centre, Carlisle Place, London SW1P 1NL

Phone: 020 7592 1850

Email: info@passage.org.uk

Website: www.passage.org.uk

For homeless people and rough sleepers in the Westminster, London area (but will also consider other London areas). Passage House - Phone: 020 7821 6801 - Its primary function is to provide short-term housing requirements and life skills to clients.

Health - addresses health issues with clients, whether it be physical or mental health issues and provides services such as - Primary health care, Mental health, Substance misuse, Complementary therapies, Opticians, etc.

Day Centre - Its primary function is to provide for basic health, housing and education needs. The Day Centre, open from 8am to 6pm on weekdays, 9am to 12 noon at weekends, often helps more than 200 people a day. Rough sleepers are given priority during the breakfast period to enable them to access showers, medical care and clothing, as well as food. To ensure that we are able to focus on our core work - helping homeless and vulnerable people - we no longer operate an open-door policy. As a result, fewer people use the Centre but, since we are now able to direct our resources to those most in need, the total number of visits has increased. While we see smaller numbers of the skilled, healthy and motivated people from EU accession countries, we continue to work with anyone, wherever they are from, who meets our criteria and needs our help.

Hospitality team - The team members run "the floor" of the Day Centre. They ensure that the Centre is safe and welcoming, and introduce new clients to its services. Of two drop-in sessions, the first, from 8am to 11am, is aimed at rough sleepers in the Victoria/South Westminster area, although anyone sleeping rough is given access to primary services and advice. At the second, from 11.30am to 2pm, people who are vulnerably housed, as well as those sleeping rough, are welcomed. The afternoon is taken up with assessing clients' needs, and running group activities and training. On Saturdays and Sundays the Centre is open from 9am to 12 noon. The teams which run the Centre at weekends include many volunteers.

Assessment and Advice team - The team assesses clients' needs, provides housing advice, and supports clients in accessing any benefits to which they are entitled. It provides a specific service, funded by the Irish government, for Irish clients, and has relationships with Borderline, a service for Scottish homeless people, and SSAFA, a service for former members of the armed forces. To help clients back into their own homes, we have relationships with, and have made referrals to, three accommodation providers: Paradigm Housing Group, St Ignatius Housing Association, and Arhag. We run pre-tenancy workshops for clients and, to improve communication with the Day Centre, have joint team meetings with the Health and Streetlink teams.

Streetlink team: Regardless of the weather, three late nights and one early morning each week, members of our streetlink team go out in pairs to encourage homeless people to come into the Day Centre. Those who are able to make and keep appointments are referred to the assessment and advice team, but there are a number of long-term rough sleepers who are reluctant to use the Day Centre, and others whose chaotic lifestyles or mental health prevent them from using support services effectively. The team constantly looks for innovative ways to engage with these people, including holding sessions in the Day Centre at quieter periods outside normal opening hours. The team creates a link with other providers and street teams in the borough, hosts multi-agency meetings, and formulates strategies to reduce rough sleeping by helping people access services.

Education, Training and Employment (ETE) - to educate clients and further their skills, so clients can gain work. Facilities include - Drop-in computing, Literacy, Employment/education guidance, Life skills, Mentoring, Magazine group and Financial inclusion.

Work closely with the Foyer Federation, the National Learning and Skills Council, Horizon Housing Group, Wandle Housing Association, and the London Boroughs of Merton, Wandsworth and Kingston to develop a range of housing support and training options for the community. Tenants are accommodated in fully furnished houses/flats ranging from 2 to 16 bed spaces, on 6 month, short hold, assured tenancies. Length of stay expected to be up to 2 years. Housing officers help the young person find opportunities in training, education and employment. An initial assessment identifies the options open to the young person, and ongoing support is designed to help them gain the necessary qualifications/experience to enhance their employment prospects. A life skills programme is delivered in-house, tailored to the individual needs of tenants.
